FEATURING DR. DAVID COOK PH. D. – WORSHIP BY BENJI & JENNA COWART

David Cook is one of the country's top Peak Performance coaches and seminar leaders. He recently released his first performance novel, Golf's Sacred Journey: Seven Days at the Links of Utopia. The story deals with a young down-and-out golfer who is burned out and ready to escape the perceived pressures of the game. In a chance encounter with a rancher on the back roads of Texas he is promised, "spend seven days in Utopia, and you'll find your game." The story is one of reconciliation, redemption, forgiveness and grace. It is a combination of sports psychology, golf, life, purpose, faith, and of course Utopia. Just wait until you hear David tell the full story -it may change your life! This event is being sponsored by Integrity Lighthouse Enterprises. Recommended Donation is $20 at the door. Proceeds will be given to Global Fellowship (www.gfmission.com).

DR. DAVID COOK PH. D.

David Cook is one of the country's top Peak Performance coaches and seminar leaders. He served as "Mental Training Coach" for the San Antonio Spurs from 1996 – 2004 that included two World Championships. He also served as mental training coach for the Washington Wizards of the NBA in 2005, helping them reach the second round of the playoffs for the first time in 26 years. Golf Digest recently named him one of the "Top 10 Mental Game Experts" in the world of golf. As past president of the National Sport Psychology Academy he is known as a leading authority in the science of Peak Performance. He has coached performers from the PGA (over 100 players), NBA (two NBA MVP's, David Robinson and Tim Duncan), NFL, MLB, Olympics, and collegiate national championship ranks. His business clients have included The PGA of America, Exxon Mobil, Sprint, HP/Compaq, USAA, Heinz, American Express, Bristol-Myers Squibb, Texas Instruments, Bayer, Interstate Battery, StorageTek, Pitney Bowes, US Filter, State Farm Insurance, Robert Half International, and many others. He is the former Director of Applied Sport and Performance Psychology at the University of Kansas (1984 – 1996) where his peers elected him President of the National Sport Psychology Academy in 1992. During his twelve-year tenure at K.U. he counseled over 1500 athletes and coaches. He also directed the Mindset Academy at the Westin La Cantera Resort, a nationally recognized mental training academy for aspiring competitive golfers from 2001 - 2006. David's articles have been featured in Golf Magazine, Golf Illustrated, and Golf Tips. In 1988 David represented the United States at the International Olympic Academy in Olympia, Greece.

David received his undergraduate degree from Baylor University in 1980. He completed his Ph.D. in Applied Sport and Performance Psychology from the University of Virginia in 1984. He recently released his first performance novel, Golf's Sacred Journey: Seven Days at the Links of Utopia.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

"This book floored me. It reminded me of the many discussions David and I had during my last 7 years in the NBA. This book is full of wisdom that will enhance your game and I believe it just may change your life." David Robinson, NBA MVP, Two-Time World Champion

"I personally couldn't put this book down. Golf's Sacred Journey gives you many great insights and a different perspective to the game of golf and then finishes with Truth about life."

Aaron Raddeley, PGA Tour Winner
